I stayed up all night making this. I'm going to get some sleep and then I'm going to stand on the corner in Phoenix and share my message with everyone driving by. I've never done anything like that before in my life, wish me luck!! by AnointedVisions

So me and my 16 year old son were playing some pool. We started talking about the protest on DC and he started dropping red pills left and right. It's was stuff that I'd never spoken to him about. These kids aren't blind. They are seeing what is happening and they are talking amongst themselves. by MikelovesTrump

Greatest President ever. For the rest of my life, thanks to The Donald, no one will be able to say some TDS bullshit in my presence without a concise, fact based, shut down of their lies in defense of President Donald J. Trump. by
